

OSCILLATOR X

"Positive, Uplifting Dance Music – A 90's feel with a modern appeal"

The upbeat vocal dance/pop music of Oscillator X draws from a variety of progressive electronic styles to create a unique new sound that is listenable as well as danceable.

The duo, comprised of John Mendenhall and Kyle Ward, have been producing music together since 1999. Oscillator X's energetic sound is often compared to artists as diverse as Eiffel 65, 2 Unlimited, O-Zone, and Daft Punk.

Unlike many of today's dance acts, Oscillator X is a bona fide band with both members writing and performing all of the music, both in the studio and at a dynamic live event.

Oscillator X has been featured in Abercrombie and Fitch stores worldwide as well as several video games including: In The Groove, Pump It Up, iDANCE2, Snake 360, Snowball Runner, Rhythm Destruction and ReRave.

SELECTED PRESS:

"The phones lit up the instant we played "Dynamo" and are still ringing two months later."

- Richard J Dalton – Operations Manager C89.5fm KNHC Seattle, WA

It's nice to hear local music of this caliber. When we played "Dynamo" back in January 2009, there was an instant reaction on the phones. It debuted on our request generated top 5 countdown on January 24, 2009 where it stayed for the next 14 weeks. Of those 14 weeks, 7 were at number one. The audience loves these guys! We are excited to hear what infectious songs they unleash on us in the future.

- Jon McDaniel – Program/Music Director – C89.5fm KNHC Seattle, WA

"Oscillator X took the stage with two synthesizers, a turntable, and plenty of theatrics. They pulled out all the stops; pyrotechnic effects like flames shooting out of their keyboards, an onstage glowstringer, and several bursts of glittering confetti. I felt like I was on ecstasy."

- The Seattle Weekly

"Techno Techyes" covers a modest but vivacious spectrum of dancehall sounds. Oscillator X demonstrates its verve via fusions of synthpop, trance and the lighter side of electro-industrial, the three frequently co-existing within the being of a single track.

Oscillator X - Dynamo (5/5 stars)

"Dandan Dubidu Dandan – uses a favorite phrase of Japanese and Chi in the chorus. This song has a momentum to the whole – enjoyable listening. I like the percussion in the second half. I'm looking forward to a trance remix."
